Dear Seniors,

Congratulations,

felicitaciones,

Today is a meaningful date, and we are so glad that we can commemorate it with you, your family and friends. You must be proud and happy, and so are we.

We are truly honored that you have chosen to share your passion for foreign languages and cultures with us in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. We have done our best to meet your high expectations, and we hope to have opened new windows through which you will be able to see and feel the world.

A new language is a new land, which you have learned to explore with competence and wisdom. We also expect this moment to be the start of new journeys, in which you will thrive through cultural awareness and a sense of justice and solidarity, by helping to knock down barriers of all sorts. The world is yours, and it needs you more than ever.

We are delighted to have been part of your academic experience at Princeton University, and we wish you all the best.
